Explanation of Responses:

- These securities are held in trust for the benefit of the reporting person. The reporting person is the trustee of the trust. The reporting person disclaims beneficial ownership of the reported securities except to the extent of any pecuniary interest therein, and the inclusion of these securities in this report shall not be deemed an admission that the reporting person is the beneficial owner of these securities for purposes of Section 16 or for any other purpose.
- These securities are held in trust for the benefit of the reporting person's spouse. The reporting person's spouse is the trustee of the trust. The reporting person disclaims beneficial ownership of the reported securities except to the extent of any pecuniary interest therein, and the inclusion of these securities in this report shall not be deemed an admission that the reporting person is the beneficial owner of these securities for purposes of Section 16 or for any other purpose.
- These warrants have an initial exercise price of $7.68 per share. The exercise price increases 0.5% at the end of each month, which equates to an annual increase of 6%.
- The number of warrants reported on the reporting person's Form 3, dated April 11, 2012, was underreported by 37 warrants (after giving effect to the Company's 37 for 1 stock split in March 2012) due to a clerical error.
- These warrants expire upon the earlier of five years from the initial issuance, 2.5 years after the consummation of an initial public offering of the Company's common stock or upon the occurrence of certain other events described in the Warrant Agreement pursuant to which the warrants were issued.
- Upon exercise, the warrants are converted into common stock in accordance with a formula provided in the Warrant Agreement. No payment of an exercise price is required in connection with the exercise of the warrants.
